Content of Consultation

1. 2024/25 Admissions Policy for consultation
2. 2025/26 Admissions selection criteria for consultation

1. 2024/25 Admissions Policy for consultation

Please see School Website for full Academy Admissions policy for consultation.

Please note:

- PAN remains at 162
- There are no changes to the policy which follows in full the Admissions Code and works closely with Waltham Forest admissions team.

2. 2025/26 Admissions selection criteria for consultation

As stated in the Admissions Code (1.24) the school is allowed to select up to 10% based upon specific aptitude. From 2025/26 Norlington School will be selecting up to 10% of its cohort based upon an aptitude in sports, specifically Cricket.

The final number of places allocated will form part of the overall PAN of the school and be a maximum of 10% of PAN (16 places as of 2025/26). The school reserves the right to select less than 10% of PAN using its selection criteria. This applies to Year 7 cohorts of that year only.

The selection process will include trials held during the winter term with final decisions regarding selection to the Cricket Academy will be made by the school.

The school will work in conjunction with the local authority admissions team to ensure the process meets all admission code expectations. This will include an adaption of the supplementary information form.
